

Sir or Ma'am:Innovation is under attack. I urge the commission to reject petition 04-160 and to continue to allow satellite radio to broadcast traffic and weather. I live in the northeast and travel frequently around the region. The ability to get traffic reports about my destination area before I am within range of local FM stations is very helpful. Perhaps the competition will encourage the large corporate owners of FM stations to improve their services. Respectfully,

Theodore Freeman